-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 20 March 2008.
2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of group II, claims 9-15, in the reply filed on 03/28/2008 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 1-8 & 16-30 are hereby withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claims 9-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
 - Claim 9, lines 13-14: "disconnection of the motor on the basis of an energized current for the motor during the abnormality diction operation" renders the claim indefinite because, the motor will not rotate in either reverse or forward direction once the current no longer exists.
 - Claim 10, lines 17-18: "an abnormality of the motor is detected on the basis of the measured value" is vague and indefinite because it is unclear as to what measured value applicant is referring and to what range of the measured values the abnormality of the motor is determined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 9-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP'404 (JP-2000103404).

Note that JP-2000103404 was published on April 11,2000, which is qualified as prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(b); US Patent NO. 6,349,848 was published on Feb. 26, 2002 and assigned to the same assignee of the present application and thus is not qualified as prior art. US 6,349,848 is a national stage of PCT/JP99/05135 which claims priority to JP-2000103404; therefore, US 6,349,848 will served as an English translation for JP-2000103404.

- With respect to claims 9-13, JP'404 discloses a medicine supply apparatus (1) that meets all of applicant's claimed subject matter; in particular, the apparatus of JP'404 comprises: a plurality of tablet cases (3), each tablet case (3) comprising a container (51) for accommodating medicine tablets, a discharge drum (53) and a drive motor (61); and a controller (76) having means for rotating the motor (61) forward to discharge the medicine tablets and for detecting jam so that when jam does occur, the motor (61) is rotated backward and then rotated forward. Specifically, when the medicine tablets are held and stuck between a discharge port and the discharge drum (53) during a dispensing operation, the motor (61) is locked, and an excess lock current flows; the controller (76) detects a lock state from the current supplied to the motor (61) by an excess current detection circuit (78); and the controller (76), at the time the lock state occurs, rotates backward the motor (61) for a short period to rotate backward the discharge drum (53), and then the motor (61) rotates forward for a period to rotate forward the discharge drum (53) (US'848, col. 8, lines 32-42).

- With respect to claim 14, the backward/forward rotating operation is repeated several times until the stuck medicine tablet is drop, and the controller (76) will return the motor (61) to normal control forward rotation again (US'848, col. 8, lines 43-54).
- With respect to claim 15, the medicine supply apparatus of JP'404 further includes a display (67) for performing an alarm display (US'848, col. 8, lines 55-59).

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and is cited on form PTO-892 along with the applied prior art.
